REMARKS ESTABLISHING UNINTENTIONAL DELAY

Sir:

The above identified application was unintentionally abandoned following the expiration of the six month period following the Final Office Action mailed October 4, 2005. Of the sixty-six claims pending, the Final Office Action rejected claims 1-13, 15-21, 23-41, 43-57, 60-66, but indicated that dependent claims 14, 22, 42, 58 and 59 would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all limitations of their respective base claim and any intervening claims.

In response to the Final Office Action, Applicant filed a Request For Reconsideration including arguments requesting withdrawal of the finality of the rejection. The Amendment was filed on December 5, 2005, within the two-month period following the mailing of the Final Office Action. Applicant received an Advisory Action, mailed January 4, 2006, indicating that the arguments made in the Request for Reconsideration were not persuasive. The Advisory Action maintained the position of the Final Office Action that dependent claims 14, 22, 42, 58, and 59 would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all limitations of their respective base claim and any intervening claims.

In response, Applicant filed an Amendment on February 6, 2006 to take the subject matter indicated as allowable. In the Amendment, Applicant indicated that because the only claims left in the application were those indicated as allowable, all outstanding issues were believed to be resolved. Thus, Applicant expected a Notice of Allowance to be issued. While awaiting the Notice of Allowance, the six month period lapsed.

Shortly thereafter, Applicant received an Advisory Action mailed April 5, 2006, one day after the expiration of the six-month period. In the Advisory Action, the Examiner indicated that she had reconsidered her position because she felt that there was an inconsistency in claim 14. Upon receipt of the Advisory Action, Applicant realized that the application had unintentionally gone abandoned and telephoned the Examiner to inquire as to why an Advisory Action was mailed after the six-month date. The Examiner indicated that the Advisory Action was mailed in error.

Applicant encloses herein a Petition for Revival of an Application for Patent Abandoned Unintentionally. Applicant also submits herewith an RCE and an Amendment, pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b)(1) that is believed to put the application in allowable condition, in view of the Advisory Action mailed April 6, 2006.

Respectfully submitted,
Steven M. Blumenau et al., Applicant(s)
